

Luanne Southern

Luanne Southern works at the University of Texas Systems Administration (UTS) as the Executive Director for the Texas Child Mental Health Care Consortium. She has over 35 years of experience serving in health and human services positions at the national, state, and local level within the government, non-profit, academic, philanthropic, and private sectors. She came to UTS from Casey Family Programs, an operating foundation focused on reforming the nation's child welfare system and addressing the needs of children in foster care.

Luanne Southern, MSW

Ms. Southern was Deputy Commissioner for the Texas Department of State Health Services from 2007-13. Her children's services experience in Texas includes serving as a social worker at Austin State Hospital and working in various children's mental health positions for the Travis County

Texas Local Mental Health Authority. Luanne spent 5 years in the Washington, DC area doing national work to support federal, state, and local reforms in children's mental health, child welfare, juvenile justice, special education, healthcare financing and prevention and early intervention.

She is a current Commissioner on the Supreme Court of Texas Permanent Judicial Commission for Children, Youth and Families.

Luanne has a Master's in Social Work from the University of Texas at Austin and a Bachelors in Social Work from Goshen College in Indiana.

Contact: lsouthern@utsystem.edu